HISTORICAL WIN AT FINNISH DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIPS

Eventful Finnish District Championship regatta was sailed over the weekend in Turku, Finland. Due to too difficult weather conditions the starts were cancelled on Friday and everyone were eagerly waiting for Saturday morning. We got lots of strong wind and in the end on Sunday no wind at all as well as beautiful sunshine and the greatest rain of this summer. The regatta was full of entertainment, few capsized Lightnings and a good race!

Our junior team Laura Pesola, Janiina Partanen ja Meeri Aro sailed for gold medals being the first woman skipper and also the first all-women crew to win Finnish District Championships. The trophy has been awarded since 1948 and it's great to have the name of first woman skipper on it. Congratulations for all winners!
